

PTA is non-partisan and, as such, shall have no connection with any political party or candidate for office. This prohibition is imposed on our organization by federal law. You must work with people from all political parties. Any can be allies on specific issues important to you.

As a PTA, We May:

- Take positions on issues related to education and children's advocacy, including initiatives and referenda voted on at the local or state level.
- Lobby legislators and public policy makers regarding issues.
- Arrange and support activities that serve to inform members about issues.
- Promote participation in civic activities by registering voters and encouraging turnout.
- Arrange, support, sponsor and advertise public information forums.
- Educate members on various issues and their impact.
- Share the voting records of elected officials.

As a PTA, We May Not:

- Participate or intervene in, directly or indirectly, any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. This includes both partisan and non-partisan races such as for school board.
- Support, oppose or endorse, in any way, any candidate who is running for a public office, including school board
